CORAM : MR.JUSTICE S.K.KESHOTE

Date of decision: 17/02/2000

ORAL JUDGEMENT

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner.

2. This revision application arises from the regular civil suit No. 184 of 1984 in the court of Civil Judge (J.D.) at Dholka.

3. There is all possibility that by now the suit itself would have been disposed of. The counsel for the petitioner is unable to throw any light on this aspect. Be that as it may. This court protected the petitioner by grant of interim relief on condition of depositing Rs.6000/- in the trial court. That interim relief continues till this date.

4. The interest of justice will be served in case this revision application is disposed of in terms that the interim relief granted by this court shall continue till the decision of the suit. Learned trial court is directed to decide the suit within a period of four months from the date of receipt of writ of this order if it is not decided so far. So far as the amount deposited by the petitioner in the trial court in pursuance to the order of this court is concerned, the trial court shall pass appropriate order for refund of the same to the petitioner, if ultimately he succeeds in the suit. The civil revision application and Rule stand disposed of accordingly with no order as to costs.
